As we approach winter this weekend, we are reminded by the cold and wet days that we will be having. At Kidsway we do play outside in all weather so please pack gumboots, raincoats, winter hats and plenty of clothing. We send home all wet clothing in our wet bags so please ensure these are returned the next booked day for continued use.

Kelly Tarltons

Wow what a day, thank you to nearly all the Kidsway whanau for coming to Kelly Tarltons. It was an absolute blast!

With 56 children and 36 adults, 2 buses and alot of organing we did it.

We could not have done this trip without the parent helpers, you have been a truly amazing supporting us, looking after not only your own children but also others.

We could not have done this trip without the amazing fundraising efforts to cover over 75% of the trips cost!

Photos: we would love to have a shared album so please can you upload and send your photos directly to me via storypark, email or our on our Facebook page.

Please only share photos of your children on social media, approval of other children must be given by both the centre and the parents of the children.

The feedback form is our now, please return into our feedback box or email to admin@stjameskidsway.org.nz

Jammies in June.

Help us change the odds

Children living in our most disadvantaged communities are three times more likely to end up in hospital*. These are appalling odds. Helping to improve living conditions for kids, even by small, practical steps, can set them up for healthier lives and brighter futures. Donating PJs can start to make this difference, keeping our kids warm. Start collecting now!
